Katie Winsdale Receives 2004 Women on the Move® Award

Katie Winslade, director of Workforce Development, is the recipient of a 2004 Women on the Move Award. Sponsored by Texas Executive Women and the Houston Chronicle, the annual award honors women in the Houston area who have distinguished themselves in terms of their professional activities and community service. Texas Executive Women (TEW) is an organization dedicated to supporting the professional advancement of young women in the community.

Katie and nine other award winners were honored during the 20th annual Women on the Move luncheon held at the InterContinental Houston Hotel on November 5. During the awards ceremony, Katie was recognized for her commitment to helping women surmount various barriers to employment or career advancement. Under her direction, Workforce Development and the nonprofit Pathways to Career Advancement have developed highly successful programs that help career-minded women attain the skills and resources needed to compete in today’s highly competitive job market.

Since the initiation of the Women on the Move program in 1985, 200 area women have been honored for their accomplishments.
